

Healing the World: Prayer as Social Action
A Retreat with Devi Tide
March 21st-22nd 10 am – 5:30 pm
Introductory program Thursday, March 20th 7 – 9 pm

Devi Tide, head of the Sufi Healing Order of North America has over 30 years of experience as a healer, retreat guide and teacher of spiritual healing practices and meditation.. Devi has spoken at the Sufism Symposium in Hyderabad, the Mind Body Institute at Harvard University, and was an invited guest at the UN Millennium Peace Summit. She is the Emeritus Secretary General of the Sufi Order International, representing the Sufi ideals of interreligious harmony and personal transformation. She has led healing retreats and seminars all over the world and speaks internationally on healing. Participants can expect to acquire a variety of techniques that will be valuable adjuncts to diagnosis and treatment as well as self-care, and tools for personal growth

People worldwide are joining prayer circles in a desire to bring healing and an awakened conscience to the world. These two days will focus on combining the power of prayer with action. The challenge is to effect a transformation of our expectations, our attitudes, our thoughts and our actions and to sustain that transformation over time. This is the science of prayer. But the science is not enough. The fuel that sustains a prayer over time and effects all of life starts within us. We will work with Sufi practices connecting the heart to the source of the power of the soul, and the practice of participatory prayer.

Tuition: Two days $125. One day $75.
